

The European Theater

Overview: In August 1941, one month after Germany invaded the Soviet Union and four months before Japan drove the United States into the war, Winston Churchill and Franklin Roosevelt met off the coast of Newfoundland to outline their vision for bringing the war to an end and for creating a blue print for the post-war world. If not for this chance meeting, the next four years might have been a disaster for the free world.

European Theater

1. Operation Torch (North African Campaign)
2. Casablanca Conference
3. Operation Husky
4. Operation Overlord (D-Day)
5. Battle of the Bulge
6. Death of Mussolini
7. Death of Hitler
8. German Surrender (V E Day)