

Grading rubric for the Prezi Project

Korematsu v. United States (1944)

REVISED August 7, 2016

Your Prezi will be graded on the following criteria. If you do not fully satisfy one or more of these considerations, you may earn partial credit for the number of possible points specified.

1. Does your Prezi have a concise title relevant to its content and key argument(s)? [5 points]
2. Does your Prezi include one primary source document, one YouTube video, at least five images, insight from at least one Korematsu/Civil Liberties historians? [20 points]
3. Does your Prezi address the text, subtext and context of your primary document? [15 points]
4. Have you successfully applied critical insights from other historians included in our readings to this particular Lincoln document or its broader context? [20 points]
5. Does your project contain a range of well designed, carefully edited, and properly credited material? [20 points]

80 Points Total